

OAHI Membership

OAHI is the local chapter of ASHI, the American Society of Home Inspectors. One can join OAHI without becoming an ASHI member, but cannot vote in elections, etc. Dues for OAHI and ASHI membership are separate. There are 3 levels of ASHI membership:

ASHI Certified Inspectors— Inspectors in this category have:

- Passed the National Home Inspector Examination and ASHI's Standard of Practice and Code of Ethics module.
- Had inspection reports successfully verified for compliance with ASHI's Standard of Practice.
- Have submitted a valid list of performance of at least 250 fee-paid home inspections that meet or exceed the ASHI Standard of Practice.
- Have returned an authorized notarized affidavit to ASHI validating at least 250 inspections.
- Must agree to follow the ASHI Standard of Practice and Code of Ethics.

ASHI Inspector— Inspectors in this category have:

- Passed the National Home Inspector Examination and ASHI's Standard of Practice and Code of Ethics module.
- Had inspection reports successfully verified for compliance with ASHI's Standard of Practice.
- Have submitted a valid list of performance of at least 75 fee-paid home inspections that meet or exceed the ASHI Standard of Practice.
- Have returned an authorized notarized affidavit to ASHI validating at least 75 inspections.
- Must agree to follow the ASHI Standard of Practice and Code of Ethics.

ASHI Associates— Inspectors in this category have:

- Just joined ASHI and may be new to the inspection profession or may be a seasoned inspector who has not yet completed ASHI's requirements to move up in membership.
- Have passed the ASHI's Standard of Practice and Code of Ethics module.
- Must agree to follow the ASHI Standard of Practice and Code of Ethics.

Voting: Only ASHI Certified Inspectors have voting rights within OAHI. Non ASHI members, Associates and others have no vote. The ASHI logo can only be used by ASHI Certified Inspectors and ASHI Inspectors.

Dues: Dues paid to OAHI are $175/year and are in addition to dues paid to ASHI. A prorated fee is available for anyone joining partway through the year. OAHI offers a $25 discount for paying before July 1, and ASHI offers a chapter discount incentive of $30 for new members.

Note: To qualify for the discount coupon from ASHI, the new member must already be an ASHI member.

We have 11 monthly meetings a year and offer 2 continuing education credit hours for each meeting. Continuing education credits are only for state licensed inspectors. They cannot be used toward qualifying for state licensing.

To join, please complete the application form and submit it to either Jay Hensleigh (President), Uli Sommers (Secretary), or Aaron Taghon (Treasurer).